PREFACE.

A resolve of the Legislature, approved April 28, 1896, provided that the Governor should appoint three commissioners for consolidating and arranging the Public Statutes of the Commonwealth which should be in force and operation when their final report was made, and that, in consolidating and arranging the statutes, the commissioners should have authority to omit enactments which were redundant and which had ceased to have any effect or influence on existing rights, to reject superfluous words, to condense into as concise and comprehensive a form as is consistent with a full and clear expression of the will of the Legislature all circuitous, tautological and ambiguous phraseology, to suggest any mistakes, omissions, inconsistencies and imperfections which may appear in the laws to be consolidated and arranged, and the manner in which they may be corrected, supplied and amended. Pursuant to this resolve, the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council, appointed Edmund H. Bennett of Taunton, Charles U. Bell of Lawrence and William M. Butler of New Bedford, who entered upon the work of the commission. Mr. Bennett died in January, 1898, and subsequently, Mr. Bell and Mr. Butler resigned. The undersigned were appointed to succeed the original commissioners, and submitted their report to the General Court on the fourth day of June, 1901. Later, in compliance with an order of the General Court, adopted June 12, 1901, they prepared a supplemental report for the purpose of incorporating into the statutes the legislation of 1901. During the session of 1901, a joint special committee of the Legislature, consisting of the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the committee on the Judiciary of the Senate and House of Representatives, six other members of the Senate and sixteen other members of the House of Representatives, was appointed to consider and report on all matters relating to the consolidating and arranging of the Public Statutes. This committee was afterward increased by the addition of three members of the Senate and eight members of the House of Representatives. By a resolve of the Legislature, the committee was authorized to continue its examination and revision of the report of the commissioners after the prorogation of the regular session, and His Excellency the Governor was requested to call an extra session of the General Court on the second Wednesday of November, 1901, to the end that the statutes as consolidated, arranged and revised by the commissioners and by the committee might be enacted to take effect on the first day of January in the year 1902, or as soon thereafter as possible. The committee accordingly held twenty-two sessions, the first on May 27 and the last on October 16, examined each chapter of the commissioners' report separately upon a report from a sub-committee, to which it had been referred, and reported in print to the Legislature at the extra session, which convened on November 13, 1901. The Legislature adopted a few perfecting amendments, and on November 21, 1901, passed the following act for consolidating and arranging the general statutes of the Commonwealth, to take effect from and after the thirty-first day of December in the year 1901, under the title of the Revised Laws.

An Index is being prepared by Charles N. Harris, but it is impossible to have it completed in time to be printed herewith. When it is completed, it will be published in a separate volume. Meanwhile, the tables showing the disposition of each chapter and section of the Public Statutes of 1882 and of all subsequent statutes up to and including the acts of the year 1901, and the analysis of the chapters, will be of assistance. Thus, according to the table, Pub. Sts. c. 1, §§ 1-5, will be found in Revised Laws, c. 1, §§ 2, 3, 5-7. Pub. Sts. c. 2, §§ 5-14, were repealed by St. 1885, c. 24. That statute, except so much of it as was superseded by St. 1890, c. 302, will be found in Revised Laws, c. 3, § 7. St. 1890, c. 302, in turn, will be found in Revised Laws, c. 3, § 5. Pub. Sts. c. 12 was repealed by St. 1888, c. 390, the disposition of which will be found in the table under St. 1888, c. 390.

The marginal citations of the earlier enactments from which existing provisions of law have been derived, which were given in the report of the commissioners, have been retained in the statutes so that the history of the legislation upon a given subject may readily be traced. An examination of the statutes so cited will show that many of them have undergone an interesting transformation in their evolution into their present form. In these citations the abbreviation B. L. refers to the Massachusetts Body of Liberties of 1641: C. L. refers to the Colonial Laws, Boston edition of 1890. The Provincial Laws are cited from the state edition of the Acts and Resolves of the Province of Massachusetts Bay.

The most important decisions of the Supreme Judicial Court upon the construction of the statutes, through volume 177 of the Massachusetts Reports, and the published opinions of the Attorney General have been cited in the margins of statutes to which they relate.

The Glossary has been omitted in consequence of the action of the joint special committee relative thereto.

The Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth have been annotated by the commissioners at the request of the joint special committee. The citations of cases in the margin of the Constitution of the United States have been confined principally to the decisions of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts. The decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States construing the provisions of the Constitution are so numerous that even a selection of them would be cumbersome and confusing. Marginal citations of such decisions cannot supersede a digest of constitutional law; therefore, only such decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States and such acts of Congress as are of great public interest or affect the action of the States have been cited. Thus, United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U. S. Rep. 649, has been cited because it determines who are citizens by birth of the United States and of the several States under the first clause of the Fourteenth Amendment; and McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U. S. Rep. 1, has been cited because it expounds the manner in which State Legislatures may appoint presidential electors. Such acts of Congress have been cited as fix the time at which presidential electors shall be appointed and the time at which the electoral college shall meet; as designate the officers who shall act in the case of removal, death, resignation or inability of both the President and the Vice-President of the United States; and as relate to the election of senators and representatives in Congress. The citations in the margin of the Constitution of the Commonwealth are believed to be sufficiently copious and to include all the principal decisions of the State and United States courts.

The statutes have been printed under the supervision of William M. Olin and James W. Kimball, who were appointed for that purpose by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives under the authority of a resolve of the Legislature.

[NOTE. The constitution was adopted September 17, 1787, by the unanimous consent of the states present in the convention appointed in pursuance of the resolution of the congress of the confederation of February 21, 1787, and was ratified by the several states, as follows, viz.: By convention of Delaware, December 7, 1787; Pennsylvania, December 12, 1787; New Jersey, December 18, 1787; Georgia, January 2, 1788; Connecticut, January 9, 1788; Massachusetts, February 6, 1788; Maryland, April 28, 1788; South Carolina, May 23, 1788; New Hampshire, June 21, 1788; Virginia, June 26, 1788; New York, July 26, 1788; North Carolina, November 21, 1789; Rhode Island, May 29, 1790.

The first ten of the amendments were proposed at the first session of the first congress of the United States, September 25, 1789, and were finally ratified by the constitutional number of states on December 15, 1791. The eleventh amendment was proposed at the first session of the third congress, March 5, 1794, and was declared in a message from the President of the United States to both houses of congress, dated January 8, 1798, to have been adopted by the constitutional number of states. The twelfth amendment was proposed at the first session of the eighth congress, December 12, 1803, and was adopted by the constitutional number of states in 1804, according to a public notice thereof by the secretary of state, dated September 25 of the same year.

The thirteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-eighth congress on February 1, 1865, and was declared, in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated December 18, 1865, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

The fourteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirtieth congress, on June 16, 1866.

On July 20, 1868, the secretary of state of the United States issued his certificate, setting out that it appeared by official documents on file in the department of state that said amendment had been ratified by the legislatures of the states of Connecticut, New Hampshire, Tennessee, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, New York, Ohio, Illinois, West Virginia, Kansas, Maine, Nevada, Missouri, Indiana, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Massachusetts, Nebraska and Iowa, and by newly established bodies avowing themselves to be and acting as the legislatures of the states of Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina, Louisiana, South Carolina, and Alabama: that the legislatures of Ohio and New Jersey had since passed resolutions withdrawing the consent of those states to said amendment; that the whole number of states in the United States was thirty-seven, that the twenty-three states first above named and the six states next above named together, constituted three-fourths of the whole number of states, and certifying that if the resolutions of Ohio and New Jersey, ratifying said amendment were still in force, notwithstanding their subsequent resolutions, then said amendment had been ratified and so become valid as part of the constitution.

On July 21, 1868, congress passed a resolution reciting that the amendment had been ratified by Connecticut, Tennessee, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, West Virginia, Kansas, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota, New York, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Michigan, Nevada, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Maine, Iowa, Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina, Alabama, South Carolina and Louisiana, being three-fourths of the several states of the Union, and declaring said fourteenth article to be a part of the constitution of the United States and making it the duty of the secretary of state to duly promulgate it as such.

On July 28, 1868, the secretary of state issued his certificate, reciting the above resolution, and stating that official notice had been received at the department of state that action had been taken by the legislatures of the states in relation to said amendment, as follows: "It was ratified in A. D. 1866, by Connecticut, June 30; New Hampshire, July 7; Tennessee, July 19; Oregon, September 19; Vermont, November 9. In A. D. 1867, by New York, January 10; Illinois, January 15; West Virginia, January 16; Kansas, January 18; Maine, January 19; Nevada, January 22; Missouri, January 26; Indiana, January 29; Minnesota, February 1; Rhode Island, February 7; Wisconsin, February 13; Pennsylvania, February 13; Michigan, February 15; Massachusetts, March 20; Nebraska, June 15. In A. D. 1868, by Iowa, April 3; Arkansas, April 6; Florida, June 9; Louisiana, July 9; and Alabama, July 13.

"It was first ratified and the ratification subsequently withdrawn by New Jersey, ratified September 11, 1866, withdrawn April, 1868; Ohio, ratified January 11, 1867, and withdrawn January, 1868.

"It was first rejected and then ratified by Georgia, rejected November 13, 1866, ratified July 21, 1868; North Carolina, rejected December 4, 1866, ratified July 4, 1868; South Carolina, rejected December 20, 1866, and ratified July 9, 1868.

"It was rejected by Texas, November 1, 1866; Virginia, January 9, 1867; Kentucky, January 10, 1867; Delaware, February 7, 1867; and Maryland, March 23, 1867."

And on said July 28, 1868, and in execution of the act proposing the amendment and of the concurrent resolution of congress above mentioned and in pursuance thereof, the secretary of state directed that said amendment to the constitution be published in the newspapers authorized to promulgate the laws of the United States, and certified that it had been adopted in the manner above specified by the states named in said resolution, and that it "has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the constitution of the United States."

Subsequently it was ratified by Virginia, October 8, 1869, by Georgia, again February 2, 1870, and by Texas, February 18, 1870.

The fifteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the fortieth congress on February 27, 1869, and was declared, in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated March 30, 1870, to have been ratified by the constitutional number of states and to have "become valid to all intents and purposes as part of the constitution of the United States."]

PREAMBLE.

The end of the institution, maintenance, and administration of government, is to secure the existence of the body politic, to protect it, and to furnish the individuals who compose it with the power of enjoying in safety and tranquillity their natural rights, and the blessings of life: and whenever these great objects are not obtained, the people have a right to alter the government, and to take measures necessary for their safety, prosperity, and happiness.

The body politic is formed by a voluntary association of individuals: it is a social compact, by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good. It is the duty of the people, therefore, in framing a constitution of government, to provide for an equitable mode of making laws, as well as for an impartial interpretation and a faithful execution of them; that every man may, at all times, find his security in them.

We, therefore, the people of Massachusetts, acknowledging, with grateful hearts, the goodness of the great Legislator of the universe, in affording us, in the course of His providence, an opportunity, deliberately and peaceably, without fraud, violence, or surprise, of entering into an original, explicit, and solemn compact with each other; and of forming a new constitution of civil government, for ourselves and posterity; and devoutly imploring His direction in so interesting a design, do agree upon, ordain, and establish, the following Declaration of Rights, and Frame of Government, as the CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PART THE FIRST.

A Declaration of the Rights of the Inhabitants of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Equality and natural rights of all men.

Right and duty of public religious worship. Protection therein.

Amendment, Art. XI. substituted for this.

Legislature empowered to compel provision for public worship;

— and to enjoin attendance thereon.

ARTICLE I. All men are born free and equal, and have certain natural, essential, and unalienable rights; among which may be reckoned the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties; that of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; in fine, that of seeking and obtaining their safety and happiness.

II. It is the right as well as the duty of all men in society, publicly, and at stated seasons, to worship the SUPREME BEING, the great Creator and Preserver of the universe. And no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession of sentiments; provided he doth not disturb the public peace, or obstruct others in their religious worship.

III. [As the happiness of a people, and the good order and preservation of civil government, essentially depend upon piety, religion, and morality; and as these cannot be generally diffused through a community but by the institution of the public worship of God, and of public instructions in piety, religion, and morality: Therefore, to promote their happiness, and to secure the good order and preservation of their government, the people of this commonwealth have a right to invest their legislature with power to authorize and require, and the legislature shall, from time to time, authorize and require, the several towns, parishes, precincts, and other bodies politic, or religious societies, to make suitable provision, at their own expense, for the institution of the public worship of God, and for the support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality, in all cases where such provision shall not be made voluntarily.

And the people of this commonwealth have also a right to, and do, invest their legislature with authority to enjoin upon all the subjects an attendance upon the instructions of the public teachers aforesaid, at stated times and seasons, if there be any on whose instructions they can conscientiously and conveniently attend.

Provided, notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, precincts, and other bodies politic, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance.

Exclusive right of electing religious teachers secured.

And all moneys paid by the subject to the support of public worship, and of the public teachers aforesaid, shall, if he require it, be uniformly applied to the support of the public teacher or teachers of his own religious sect or denomination, provided there be any on whose instructions he attends; otherwise it may be paid towards the support of the teacher or teachers of the parish or precinct in which the said moneys are raised.

Option as to whom parochial taxes may be paid, unless, etc.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves peaceably, and as good subjects of the commonwealth, shall be equally under the protection of the law: and no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another shall ever be established by law.]

All denominations equally protected. 8 Met. 162. Subordination of one sect to another prohibited.

IV. The people of this commonwealth have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America, in Congress assembled.

Right of self-government secured.

V. All power residing originally in the people, and being derived from them, the several magistrates and officers of government, vested with authority, whether legislative, executive, or judicial, are their substitutes and agents, and are at all times accountable to them.

Accountability of all officers, etc.

VI. No man, nor corporation, or association of men, have any other title to obtain advantages, or particular and exclusive privileges, distinct from those of the community, than what arises from the consideration of services rendered to the public; and this title being in nature neither hereditary, nor transmissible to children, or descendants, or relations by blood, the idea of a man born a magistrate, lawgiver, or judge, is absurd and unnatural.

Services rendered to the public being the only title to peculiar privileges, hereditary offices are absurd and unnatural. 16 Pick. 353. 166 Mass. 14, 171.

167 Mass. 290.

175 Mass. 590.

VII. Government is instituted for the common good; for the protection, safety, prosperity, and happiness of the people; and not for the profit, honor, or private interest of any one man, family, or class of men: Therefore the people alone have an incontestable, unalienable, and indefeasible right to institute government; and to reform, alter, or totally change the same, when their protection, safety, prosperity, and happiness require it.

Objects of government; right of people to institute and change it. 166 Mass. 14.

VIII. In order to prevent those who are vested with authority from becoming oppressors, the people have a right, at such periods and in such manner as they shall establish by their frame of government, to cause their public officers to return to private life; and to fill up vacant places by certain and regular elections and appointments.

Right of people to secure rotation in office.

IX. All elections ought to be free; and all the inhabitants of this commonwealth, having such qualifications as they shall establish by their frame of government, have an equal right to elect officers, and to be elected, for public employments.

All, having the qualifications prescribed, equally eligible to office. For the definition of "inhabitant," see Ch. I, Sect. 2, Art. II.

X. Each individual of the society has a right to be protected by it in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property, according to standing laws. He is obliged, consequently, to contribute his share to the expense of this protection; to give his personal service, or an equivalent, when necessary: but no part of the property of any individual can, with justice, be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. In fine, the people of this commonwealth are not controllable by any other laws than those to which their constitutional representative body have given their consent. And whenever the public exigencies require that the property of any individual should be appropriated to public uses, he shall receive a reasonable compensation therefor.

XI. Every subject of the commonwealth ought to find a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries or wrongs which he may receive in his person, property, or character. He ought to obtain right and justice freely, and without being obliged to purchase it: completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

XII. No subject shall be held to answer for any crimes or offence, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him: or be compelled to accuse, or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to him; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defence by himself, or his counsel, at his election. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled, or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

XIII. In criminal prosecutions, the verification of facts, in the vicinity where they happen, is one of the greatest securities of the life, liberty, and property of the citizen. 151 Mass. 419.

XIV. Every subject has a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches, and seizures, of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. All warrants, therefore, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation, and if the order in the warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons, or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure: and no warrant ought to be issued but in cases, and with the formalities prescribed by the laws.

XV. In all controversies concerning property, and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has heretofore been otherways used and practised, the parties have a right to a trial by jury; and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in causes arising on the high seas, and such as relate to mariners' wages, the legislature shall hereafter find it necessary to alter it.

XVII. The people have a right to keep and to bear arms for the common defence. And as, in time of peace, armies are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be maintained without the consent of the legislature; and the military power shall always be held in an exact subordination to the civil authority, and be governed by it.

Right to keep and bear arms. Standing armies dangerous. Military power subordinate to civil.

5 Gray, 121. 166 Mass. 171.

XVIII. A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to those of piety, justice, moderation, temperance, industry, and frugality, are absolutely necessary to preserve the advantages of liberty, and to maintain a free government. The people ought, consequently, to have a particular attention to all those principles, in the choice of their officers and representatives: and they have a right to require of their lawgivers and magistrates an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of the commonwealth.

Moral qualifications for office.

Moral obligations of lawgivers and magistrates.

XIX. The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble to consult upon the common good; give instructions to their representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by the way of addresses, petitions, or remonstrances, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

Right of people to instruct representatives and petition legislature.
 1 Gray, 476.
 114 Mass. 214.

XX. The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of the laws, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived from it, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for.

Power to suspend the laws or their execution.
 11 Mass. 396.

XXI. The freedom of deliberation, speech, and debate, in either house of the legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any accusation or prosecution, action or complaint, in any other court or place whatsoever.

XXVII. In time of peace, no soldier ought to be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature.

Citizens exempt from law-martial, unless, etc.

XXVIII. No person can in any case be subject to law-martial, or to any penalties or pains, by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the legislature.

XXIX. It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as free, impartial, and independent as the lot of humanity will admit. It is, therefore, not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, and of every citizen, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices as long as they behave themselves well; and that they should have honorable salaries ascertained and established by standing laws.

For change of time, etc., see amendments, Art. X.

Governor's veto.
99 Mass. 636.

II. No bill or resolve of the senate or house of representatives shall become a law, and have force as such, until it shall have been laid before the governor for his revision; and if he, upon such revision, approve thereof, he shall signify his approbation by signing the same. But if he have any objection to the passing of such bill or resolve, he shall return the same, together with his objections thereto, in writing, to the senate or house of representatives, in whichsoever the same shall have originated; who shall enter the objections sent down by the governor, at large, on their records, and proceed to reconsider the said bill or resolve. But if after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the said senate or house of representatives, shall, notwithstanding the said objections, agree to pass the same, it shall, together with the objections, be sent to the other branch of the legislature, where it shall also be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of the members present, shall have the force of a law: but in all such cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays; and the names of the persons voting for, or against, the said bill or resolve, shall be entered upon the public records of the commonwealth.

Bill may be passed by two-thirds of each house, notwithstanding.

And in order to prevent unnecessary delays, if any bill or resolve shall not be returned by the governor within five days after it shall have been presented, the same shall have the force of a law.

3 Mass. 567.

135 Mass. 594.

III. The general court shall forever have full power and authority to erect and constitute judicatories and courts of record, or other courts, to be held in the name of the commonwealth, for the hearing, trying, and determining of all manner of crimes, offences, pleas, processes, complaints, actions, matters, causes, and things, whatsoever, arising or happening within the commonwealth, or between or concerning persons inhabiting, or residing, or brought within the same: whether the same be criminal or civil, or whether the said crimes be capital or not capital, and whether the said pleas be real, personal, or mixed; and for the awarding and making out of execution thereupon. To which courts and judicatories are hereby given and granted full power and authority, from time to time, to administer oaths or affirmations, for the better discovery of truth in any matter in controversy or depending before them.

For exception in case of adjournment of the general court within the five days, see amendments, Art. 1. General court may constitute judicatories, courts of record, etc. 8 Gray, 1. 12 Gray, 147.

IV. And further, full power and authority are hereby given and granted to the said general court, from time to time to make, ordain, and establish, all manner of wholesome and reasonable orders, laws, statutes, and ordinances, directions and instructions, either with penalties or without; so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution, as they shall judge to be for the good and welfare of this commonwealth, and for the government and ordering thereof, and of the subjects of the same, and for the necessary support and defence of the government thereof; and to name and settle annually, or provide by fixed laws for the naming and settling, all civil officers within the said commonwealth, the election and constitution of whom are not hereafter in this form of government otherwise provided for; and to set forth the several duties, powers, and limits, of the several civil and military officers of this commonwealth, and the forms of such oaths or affirmations as shall be respectively administered unto them for the execution of their several offices and places, so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution; and to impose and levy proportional and reasonable assessments, rates, and taxes, upon all the inhabitants of, and persons resident, and estates lying, within the said commonwealth;

SECTION I. The University.

Any two or more of the several towns and districts may, by consent of a majority of the legal voters present at a legal meeting, in each of said towns and districts, respectively, called for that purpose, and held previous to the first day of July, in the year in which the decennial census of polls shall be taken, form themselves into a representative district to continue until the next decennial census of polls, for the election of a representative, or representatives; and such district shall have all the rights, in regard to representation,

Every town containing less than twelve hundred inhabitants shall be entitled to elect a representative as many times within ten years as the number one hundred and sixty is contained in the number of the inhabitants of said town. Such towns may also elect one representative for the year in which the valuation of estates within the commonwealth shall be settled.

Towns may unite into representative districts.

Any two or more of the several towns may, by consent of a majority of the legal voters present at a legal meeting, in each of said towns, respectively, called for that purpose, and held before the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, and every tenth year thereafter, form themselves into a representative district, to continue for the term of ten years; and such district shall have all the rights, in regard to representation, which would belong to a town containing the same number of inhabitants.

The number of inhabitants which shall entitle a town to elect one representative, and the mean increasing number which shall entitle a town or city to elect more than one, and also the number by which the population of towns not entitled to a representative every year is to be divided, shall be increased, respectively, by one-tenth of the numbers above mentioned, whenever the population of the commonwealth shall have increased to seven hundred and seventy thousand, and for every additional increase of seventy thousand inhabitants, the same addition of one-tenth shall be made, respectively, to the said numbers above mentioned.

The day and manner of the election, the return of the votes, and the declaration of the said elections, shall be the same as are required in the election of governor. The registrars of voters, or in Boston the election commissioners, shall, before proceeding to recount the ballots, give notice in writing to the several candidates interested in such recount and liable to be affected thereby, or to such person as shall be designated by the petitioners for a recount of ballots cast upon questions submitted to the voters, of the time and place of making the recount, and each such candidate or person representing petitioners may appear and be present during such recount, either in person or by an agent appointed by him in writing. In the city of Boston, the chairman of the city committee representing the largest political party and the chairman of the city committee representing the second largest political party may in writing designate two persons, or such further number as the election commissioners may allow, to be present and witness the count, and said board shall allow each candidate whose election is in question, or his representative, to be present and may allow representatives of other political parties and other persons to be present and witness the recount.

All recounts shall be upon the questions designated in the statements filed, and no other count shall be made, or allowed to be made, or other information taken, or allowed to be taken, from the ballots on such recount.

The registrars of voters shall, when the recount is complete, enclose all the ballots in their proper envelopes, seal each envelope with a seal provided for the purpose, and certify upon each envelope that the same has been opened and again sealed in conformity to law; and shall likewise make and sign a statement of their determination of the questions raised. The envelopes, with such statement, shall be returned to the city or town clerk, and he shall alter and amend such records as have been found to be erroneous in accordance with such determination; and the records so amended shall stand as the true records of the election. Such amended records of votes cast at a state election shall be made and transmitted as required by law in the case of copies of original records. If, in case of a recount of votes for town officers, it shall appear that a person was elected other than the person declared to have been elected, the board of registrars of voters shall forthwith make and sign a certificate of such fact, stating therein the number of votes cast, as determined by the recount, for each candidate for the office the election to which is disputed, and shall file the same with the town clerk. The town clerk shall record the certificate and shall, within twenty-four hours after such filing, cause a copy of such certificate, attested by him, to be delivered to or left at the residence of the person so declared to have been elected, and to the person who by such certificate appears to be elected.

Boards of registrars of voters may employ such clerical assistance as they may deem necessary to enable them to carry out the provisions of this section.

1 SECTION 38. The tax commissioner shall ascertain from the re-
 2 turns or otherwise the true market value of the shares of each cor-
 3 poration subject to the requirements of the preceding section, and 4 shall estimate therefrom the fair cash value of all of said shares
 5 constituting its capital stock on the preceding first day of May,
 6 which, unless by the charter of a corporation a different method of 7 ascertaining such value is provided, shall, for the purposes of this 8 chapter, be taken as the true value of its corporate franchise. From 9 such value there shall be deducted :

10 First, In case of a railroad or telegraph company or of a street
 11 railway company whether chartered or organized in this common-12 wealth or elsewhere, so much of the value of its capital stock as is 13 proportional to the length of that part of its line, if any, lying 14 without the commonwealth ; and also the value of its real estate and 15 machinery subject to local taxation within the commonwealth.

16 Second, In case of such a domestic telephone company, the 17 amount and market value of all stock in other corporations held by 18 it upon which a tax has been paid in this or other states for the 19 twelve months last preceding the date of the return ; and in case of 20 such a foreign telephone company, so much of the value of its 21 capital stock as is proportional to the number of telephones used or 22 controlled by it or under any letters patent owned or controlled by 23 it without the commonwealth. In case of a telephone company,
 24 whether chartered or organized in this commonwealth or elsewhere,
 25 the value of its real estate and machinery subject to local taxation
 26 within the commonwealth.

27 Third, In case of corporations subject to the requirements of 28 the preceding section other than railroad, telegraph, telephone or 29 street railway companies, whether chartered or organized in this 30 commonwealth or elsewhere, the value as found by the tax commis-
 31 sioner of their real estate and machinery subject to local taxation 32 wherever situated.

33 For the purposes of this section, the tax commissioner may take 34 the value at which such real estate and machinery is assessed at 35 the place where it is located as the true value, but such local 36 assessment shall not be conclusive of the true value thereof.

it in public ways in such city or town and also the total length of 9 track operated by it in public ways, determined as provided in sec- 10
tion thirty-seven, and also the amount of its gross receipts during 11
the year ending on the preceding thirtieth day of September, includ- 12
ing therein all amounts received by it from the operation of its rail- 13

5 tered or organized under the laws of this commonwealth or else-
6 where, shall assess on each company described in the preceding
7 section operating a railway therein an excise tax of an amount
8 equal to such proportion of the following percentages of the gross
9 receipts of such company as the length of tracks operated by it in 10 public ways of such city or town bears to the total length of tracks
11 operated by it in public ways.

12 The percentages shall be based upon the annual gross receipts for 13 each mile of track as follows and computed upon the aggregate of 14 said annual gross receipts: four thousand dollars or less, one per 15 cent; more than four thousand dollars and less than seven thou-16 sand, two per cent; more than seven thousand dollars and less than

18 to said city or town annually thereafter, said percentage to be fixed
19 at such a rate as will be necessary to yield to said city or town 20 annually thereafter an amount equal to the average annual cost to 21 said city or town determined as aforesaid; and the percentage so 22 fixed shall not be again changed for the period of three years and

CHAPTER 34.

OF THE MANUFACTURE AND DISTRIBUTION OF GAS AND ELECTRICITY
 BY CITIES AND TOWNS.

1 SECTION 1. A city or town may, in accordance with the pro-
 2 visions of this chapter, construct, purchase or lease, and maintain
 3 within its limits, one or more plants for the manufacture or dis-
 4 tribution of gas or electricity for furnishing light for municipal use,
 5 or light, heat or power, except for the operation of electric cars,
 6 for the use of its inhabitants. Such plants may include suitable
 7 land, structures and machinery and other apparatus and appliances
 8 for manufacturing, using and distributing gas or electricity for said 9 purposes.

Cities and towns may

1 SECTION 2. A city shall not acquire such a plant until it has
 2 been so authorized by a vote of two-thirds of each branch of its city
 3 council passed in each of two consecutive municipal years and there-
 4 after ratified by a majority of the voters at an annual or special city
 5 election. If such a vote is not ratified, no similar vote shall be sub-
 6 mitted for ratification within one year thereafter. Such vote of the 7 city council shall be subject to the approval or veto of the mayor.

1 SECTION 3. A town shall not acquire such a plant until it has
 2 been so authorized by a vote of two-thirds of the voters, taken by 3 ballot with the use of the voting list, at each of two town meetings
 4 called for the purpose and held at intervals of not less than two nor 5 more than thirteen months. If such vote fails of passage at the 6 second meeting no similar vote shall be passed within two years
 7 thereafter.

1 SECTION 4. After a city or town has voted under the provisions
 2 of the two preceding sections, the city or town clerk shall forthwith
 3 transmit to the board of gas and electric light commissioners a cer-
 4 tified copy of so much of the records of the city council or of the 5 town as relates to the result of the vote.

Penalty. 1892, 259, § 4.	SECTION 6. A city or town clerk who fails or neglects to comply with the provisions of the two preceding sections shall, for each offence, forfeit not more than twenty-five dollars.	1 2 3
Bonds, issue of. 1891, 370, § 4.	SECTION 7. A city or town which establishes, purchases, reconstructs, extends or enlarges such a plant may, by a vote taken as prescribed in section eight of chapter twenty-seven issue bonds in payment of the same. The whole amount of bonds so issued shall not, at the par value of such bonds, exceed five per cent of the valuation of the town or two and one-half per cent of the valuation of the city, according to the last preceding state valuation. Such bonds shall be payable within thirty years, shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent and shall not be disposed of for less than par and accrued interest. The indebtedness created by the issue of such bonds shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter twenty-seven, except section twelve thereof.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12
Annual pay- ments. 1893, 454, § 9. 1894, 182.	SECTION 8. Instead of issuing the bonds authorized by the preceding section, a city or town may provide for the payment of the debt incurred by it under the provisions of this chapter by such annual payments as will extinguish such debt within thirty years, and may issue bonds, notes or scrip therefor. The amount required for such annual payments shall, without further vote, be annually assessed by the assessors until said debt shall be extinguished, in the same manner as taxes are assessed under the provisions of section thirty-seven of chapter twelve.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Enlargement of plant. 1891, 370, § 5.	SECTION 9. A city or town which owns such a plant shall not, except by a vote taken in the manner prescribed in section eight of chapter twenty-seven, reconstruct, enlarge or extend the same beyond the necessary and ordinary maintenance, repair and replacement thereof, or the provision of increased appliances necessary to distribute gas or electricity to new consumers.	1 2 3 4 5 6
Purchase of established plant. 1891, 370, § 12. 1893, 454, § 5. 1894, 538.	SECTION 10. If, when a city or town votes to establish a municipal lighting plant, any person or corporation engaged at the time of the first vote required by sections two and three of this chapter in the business of generating or distributing gas or electricity for sale for lighting purposes in such city or town shall elect to sell in the manner hereinafter provided, the city or town shall purchase of him or it such portion of his or its plant and property within the limits of such city or town as is suitable for and is used in connection with such business. Such purchase shall be required to include both a gas and electric lighting plant only if a single corporation owns or operates both such plants. If the main gas works or the central electric lighting station lie within the city or town limits, such city or town shall purchase the whole of such plant and the	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13

14 property used in connection therewith, lying within such limits, at 15 its fair market value for the purposes of its use; but no portion of 16 such plant shall be estimated at less than its fair market value for 17 any other purpose, including, as an element of value, locations or 18 similar rights and the damages, if any, caused by the severance of 19 any portion of such plant lying outside such city or town limits, if 20 they are not purchased by the city or town, and excluding any 21 mortgage or other encumbrance or lien to which such plant or any 22 part thereof may be subject at the time of such purchase. The city
23 or town may require the plant and property to be transferred to it 24 free of any mortgage or lien unless the commissioners appointed 25 under the provisions of the following section otherwise determine.
26 Such value shall be estimated without enhancement on account of 27 future earning capacity or good will or of exclusive privileges de-28 rived from rights in the public streets. If the main gas works or 29 central electric lighting station of such plant lie without the city or 30 town limits, the city or town shall purchase only that portion of the 31 plant or property within its limits, estimating its value as above pro-
32 vided, but without allowance of damages on account of severance of 33 plant. No city or town shall be required to buy any apparatus or 34 appliances which are covered by letters patent of the United States
35 or embody a patentable invention unless a complete right to use the 36 same and all other apparatus or appliances necessary for its use, to 37 such extent as such city or town shall reasonably require, shall be 38 assigned or granted to it at a cost as low as it would be to the per-39 son or corporation whose plant is purchased. No city or town shall 40 be required to buy any property unnecessarily added to a plant after 41 the passage of its first vote under the provisions of sections two or 42 three, nor any property except such as would be suitable for the 43 ordinary business of the vendor. If any property or plant which 44 the city or town would be entitled or required to buy would not be 45 available to it if purchased, by reason of liens, interests of third
46 parties, private contracts or other causes whereby the city or town
47 would be at a greater disadvantage in its use than the vendor, it 48 may be released from buying the same, or it may be allowed an 49 equitable discount from the purchase price as the commissioners
50 provided for in the following section determine.

1 SECTION 11. Any person, or corporation who desires to enforce
2 the obligation of a city or town under the provisions of the pre-
3 ceding section to purchase any property shall, within thirty days
4 after the passage of the final vote of such city or town to establish 5 a plant, file with its clerk a detailed schedule of the property and a
6 statement of the proposed terms of sale. If the parties fail to agree
7 as to what property shall be sold, or as to the terms of sale and 8 delivery, either party may, within sixty days after the filing of the 9 schedule, apply by petition to the supreme judicial court which,
10 after a hearing, shall appoint one or more commissioners who shall 11 determine what property, real or personal, including rights and 12 easements, shall be sold by the one and purchased by the other,
13 and what the price, time and other conditions of the sale and delivery
14 thereof shall be. Such commissioners shall file their report in the 15 supreme judicial court for revision or confirmation. No commis-16 sioner shall be appointed until the expiration of sixty days after the filing of the schedule named in section fifteen unless the vote authorized by section sixteen has been passed, or unless it appears that the person or corporation filing the schedule owns no plant in an adjoining city or town which may be the subject of adjudication.

Appeal from award. 1891, 370, § 14.

SECTION 12. A party aggrieved by the award of the commissioners may, within fourteen days after it has been filed or within such further time as the court may allow, file objections to matters of fact or law therein, and thereupon the court, after notice to all parties interested, shall have jurisdiction in equity to hear and determine the same.

Purchase of property of plant in adjoining city or town. 1893, 454, § 1.

SECTION 13. If a city or town purchases a gas or electric lighting plant having mains, poles, wires or other distributing apparatus in an adjoining city or town in which there is no private gas or electric lighting company, it may also purchase such mains, poles, wires or other distributing apparatus therein, subject to the provisions of the three preceding sections.

Supply of light, etc., to adjoining place. 1893, 454, § 2.

SECTION 14. A city or town which has acquired, as hereinbefore provided, mains, poles, wires or other distributing apparatus in an adjoining city or town may thereafter manufacture, sell and distribute gas or electricity to said adjoining city or town or to its inhabitants, and shall thereafter have therein the same rights and franchises and be subject to the same limitations and obligations as the person or corporation from whom such outlying plant was purchased would have had or to which he or it would have been subject had such purchase not been made. If the adjoining city or town shall itself establish a gas or electric lighting plant, it shall, under the provisions of sections ten, eleven and twelve, purchase the plant and property within its limits owned by the other city or town, which, within thirty days after demand filed with its clerk, shall file with the clerk of the purchasing city or town the schedule required by section eleven, and shall sell the same; and thereupon its right to maintain a gas or electric lighting plant or to sell gas or electricity within the limits of the purchasing city or town shall cease as to the plant sold.

Enforcement of obligation of purchase. 1893, 454, § 3.

SECTION 15. After the first of the two votes required by sections two and three shall have been passed in a city or town, any person or corporation who owns a gas or electric lighting plant therein and desires to preserve the right to enforce the obligation of such city or town to purchase his or its plant shall, within thirty days after a written request therefor by the mayor, authorized by the city council, or by the selectmen, file with the city or town clerk a detailed statement of all of the property and plant which he or it proposes to sell to such city or town, if it votes to establish a plant, and the proposed terms of sale. If any part of the plant or property which the city or town would have the right to buy lies in an adjoining city or town, a separate schedule and the proposed terms of sale thereof shall be filed; and all the property named in such schedule, or used in connection therewith shall at all reasonable times thereafter be open to the examination of the mayor, of any committee of the city council selected by him and

17 of any experts necessary to determine the value thereof, or to the 18 examination of the selectmen and of any such experts selected 19 by them. The reasonable expenses of such schedule or of such 20 examination or inspection shall be paid by the city or town re-21 questing the same.

1 SECTION 16. Said city or town may, at any time within sixty
 2 days after the filing of such schedule, by vote of its city council
 3 or of the voters of the town, determine that such purchase shall 4 include the property in an adjoining city or town, and thereupon
 5 it shall be under the same obligations and have the same rights as to 6 the purchase of such outlying property as if it were within its limits ;
 7 but such vote shall not prejudice the right of the city or town voting
 8 to resist its obligation to purchase the same for any reason except 9 that such property is not within its limits. If such vote is not 10 taken within said sixty days, the right of such city or town to buy 11 the outlying property shall cease.

Vote of acceptance; effect.
1893, 454, § 4.

1 SECTION 17. If a city or town acquires a gas or electric lighting
 2 plant, the right of any person or corporation from whom such plant
 3 was acquired to manufacture and distribute gas or electricity within 4 its limits shall cease.

Termination of vendor's rights.
1891, 370, § 15.

1 SECTION 18. A city or town which acquires a plant for the dis-
 2 tribution, but not for the manufacture, of gas or electricity for 3 lighting purposes, may purchase gas or electricity from an adjoining 4 city or town or from any corporation manufacturing it.

Purchase of gas, etc., by city or town.
1893, 454, § 8.

1 SECTION 19. A town which has established or votes to establish
 2 a gas or electric lighting plant may elect a municipal light board
 3 consisting of three citizens of the town, one of whom shall be
 4 chosen for one year, one for two years, and one for three years,
 5 and at each annual meeting thereafter one for a term of three years,
 6 who shall have authority to construct, purchase or lease a gas or 7 electric lighting plant in accordance with the vote of the town and 8 to maintain and operate the same.

Municipal light board in towns.
1893, 454, § 10.

1 SECTION 20. The mayor of a city or the selectmen, or municipal
 2 light board if any, of a town which acquires a gas or electric light-
 3 ing plant shall appoint a manager of municipal lighting who shall,
 4 subject to any ordinance or by-law, be entrusted with the operation
 5 and management of such plant, the manufacture and distribution of 6 gas or electricity, the purchase of supplies, the employment of 7 agents and servants, with the method, time, price, quantity and 8 quality of the supply, the collection and payment of bills, the keep-
 9 ing of accounts and custody of money received for gas or electricity
 10 or otherwise. His compensation shall be annually fixed, in cities, 11 by the city council and, in towns, by the selectmen or municipal 12 light board, and, before entering upon the performance of his official 13 duties, he shall give bond to the city or town for the faithful per-14 formance thereof in a sum and form and with sureties to the satis-
 15 faction of the mayor, selectmen or municipal light board, and shall,
 16 at the end of each municipal year, render to them such detailed 17 statement of his doings and of the business and financial matters

1891, 370, § 8.
1893, 454, § 10.

in his charge as the board of gas and electric light commissioners 18 may prescribe. He shall also at any time, when required by the 19 mayor, selectmen or municipal light board, make a statement of his 20
 doings, business, receipts, disbursements, balances, and of the in- 21
 debtedness of the city or town in his department. 22

Running expenses to be included in appropriations.
 1891, 370, §§ 4, 8.

SECTION 21. The gross expenses of running such plant and sup- 1 plying gas or electric light, including the interest on bonds and the 2 requirements of the sinking fund, shall be included by such city or 3 town in its appropriations, and, in order to pay the operating ex- 4 penses thereof, it may borrow money in accordance with section 5 six of chapter twenty-seven. All receipts from the sale of gas or 6 electricity by the manager of municipal lighting or otherwise shall 7
 be paid over to the city or town treasurer. 8

Regulation of price of gas,
 etc.
 1891, 370, § 10.

SECTION 22. There shall be a fixed price for gas and electricity, 1 which shall not be changed oftener than once in three months. Any 2 change shall take effect on the first day of a month, and shall first 3 be advertised in a newspaper, if any, published in such city or 4 town. The price shall not, except with the written consent of the 5 board of gas and electric light commissioners, be fixed at less than 6 cost, in which shall be included all operating expenses, interest on 7 the net investment in the plant, less assessments collected under 8 section twenty-five at the rate paid upon the bonds above provided 9 for, the requirements of the sinking fund established to meet such 10 bonds, and also depreciation of the plant, to be reckoned at not less 11 than five per cent per annum of its cost, and losses; but any losses 12 exceeding three per cent of the investment in the plant may be 13 charged in different years at not more than three per cent per an- 14
 num. Such price shall not be greater than shall allow, above such 15 cost, a profit of eight per cent per annum to the city or town upon 16 its net investment. The gas and electricity used by the city or 17 town shall be charged to it at cost. A sufficient deposit to secure 18 the payment for gas or electricity for three months may be required 19 in advance from any consumer, and the supply may be shut off from 20 any premises until all arrears for gas or electricity furnished thereon 21 to such consumer shall have been paid. After three months' default 22 in the payment of such arrears, all appliances for distribution be- 23 longing to such city or town on the premises may be removed and 24 shall not be restored except on payment of all such arrears and 25
 the expenses of removal and restoration. 26

Certification of notice of change, etc.,
 of price.
 1892, 259, §§ 3, 4.

SECTION 23. When a city or town fixes or changes such price, 1 the manager of municipal lighting shall send a certified copy of the 2 notice thereof to the board of gas and electric light commissioners, 3 and for a failure or neglect so to do shall, for each offence, forfeit 4 not more than twenty-five dollars. 5

Appeal.
 1891, 370, § 7.
 1894, 533.

SECTION 24. A city or town shall not be compelled to furnish 1 gas or electricity to any person or corporation except upon the order 2 of the board of gas and electric light commissioners, to whom any 3 person or corporation aggrieved by the refusal of a city or town 4 to furnish gas or electricity may appeal, stating the facts in such 5
 detail as the board directs. 6

1 SECTION 25. A city or town which acquires such a plant may 2 provide by ordinance or by-laws for the equitable assessment upon
 3 the owner or occupant of any premises of the cost, or any part 4 thereof, of laying and maintaining pipes, conduits, conductors or 5 other appliances thereon. Payment of such assessments shall not
 6 be compulsory, but it shall be a condition precedent to the supply
 7 of gas or electricity to the occupants of such premises, and may be 8 required before providing appliances therefor.

Assessment
 upon consumers of cost of installation.
 1891, 370, § 6.

1 SECTION 26. A city or town which operates such a plant may 2 pass ordinances or by-laws, imposing penalties not exceeding fifty
 3 dollars, to protect the plant, control its use and prevent accidents
 4 from gas or electricity supplied by it, and to govern consumers in 5 their use thereof.

Ordinances or
 by-laws.
 1891, 370, § 11.

1 SECTION 27. A city or town which manufactures or sells gas or 2 electricity for lighting shall keep records of its work and doings at 3 its manufacturing station, and in respect to its distributing plant, as 4 required by the board of gas and electric light commissioners. The 5 books, accounts and returns shall be made and kept, in a form pre-
 6 scribed by said board, and the accounts shall be closed on the thirtieth
 7 day of June annually and a balance sheet of that date shall be taken 8 therefrom and included in the return of said board. The mayor or 9 selectmen, or municipal light board if any, shall annually, on or 10 before the second Wednesday of September, make a return to said
 11 board, for the year ending on the thirtieth day of June, signed and 12 sworn to by the mayor or a majority of the selectmen or municipal 13 light board if any, and by the manager, stating the financial con-
 14 dition of said business, the amount of indebtedness both authorized
 15 and existing on account thereof, a statement of income and expenses

 9 so to be paid by him may, within six months after notice of such

 6 loan for sewer purposes shall be paid annually upon the assessment
 7 from the time it was made, and the assessment shall be paid within 8 three months after such land is built upon or at the expiration of 9 such fixed time. If any assessment is invalid by reason of error

 12 He shall, upon request of the board of gas and electric light com-
 13 missioners, give to it such information and assistance as it may 14 require consistent with the duties of his office, and he shall also 15 annually in January report to the general court the number of 16 meters inspected and sealed during the preceding year, with other
 17 information which he deems expedient. The assistant inspectors
 18 shall, under the direction of the inspector, aid him in performing 19 the duties of his office.

1 SECTION 5. If the inspector is unable to attend to his duties in

 9 expenses. Said salaries and expenses shall be paid by the com-
 10 monwealth, but no larger amount shall be so paid than is actually 11 paid into the treasury in the manner provided in the following 12 section.

days after written notice given by the treasurer and receiver general, to pay into the treasury the amount required of such company on account of such salaries and expenses, the said treasurer shall, in the name of and for the use of the commonwealth, sue such company for such amount, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the time when said notice was given, and for the costs of the action. If at any time, however, the amount of fees collected under the provisions of section five shall exceed the amount of the salaries and the travelling expenses and other expenses of the inspector and the assistant inspectors, such excess shall be applied to reduce the annual assessment levied upon the several gas companies for the annual expenses of the board of gas and electric light commissioners under the provisions of chapter one hundred and twenty-one.

Unit of measure for gas. 1861, 168, § 5. P. S. 61, § 8.

SECTION 8. The unit of measure for the sale of illuminating gas by meter shall be the cubic foot, containing sixty-two and three hundred and twenty-one one-thousandths pounds avoirdupois weight of distilled or rain water, weighed in air of the temperature of sixty-two degrees, Fahrenheit scale, the barometer being at thirty inches.

Test gas holders and meters to be provided. 1861, 161, § 8. P. S. 61, § 10.

SECTION 9. Every gas light company with a capital paid in of one hundred thousand dollars or more and every maker and vendor of meters shall set up at some convenient place upon their premises a gas holder containing five or more cubic feet, which shall be tested and, if correct, stamped and sealed, and by means of which meters shall be tested at the average pressure at which gas is supplied in the city or town in which they are to be used, attention being paid to the temperature of the room where the trial is made. Every gas light company shall provide a test meter, of a construction approved by the inspector and stamped by him, which shall be used in cities and towns in which no test gas holders are provided or if proving by a gas holder is impracticable or inconvenient. In the examination of a meter, the inspector shall see that it is of an approved principle, shall give particular attention to the measure of the dial plate and shall prove the meter when set level, and that it is capable of accurately passing gas at the rate of six cubic feet an hour for each burner which the manufacturer has stamped it to register. A dry meter shall not be stamped correct if it varies more than two per cent from the standard measure, and a wet meter shall not be stamped correct if it is capable of registering more than two per cent against the consumer or more than five per cent against the company. The inspector shall keep at his office a correct record of all meters inspected by him, with their proof at the time of inspection, which shall be open at all times for examination by the officers of any gas light company in the commonwealth.

Meters to be stamped. 1861, 168, § 6. 1886, 230, § 3. P. S. 61, § 11.

SECTION 10. A gas company providing a meter for measuring gas supplied to a consumer which has not been duly sealed and stamped shall be punished by a fine of five dollars for every such meter in use, payable to the city or town in which the meter is situated.

1 SECTION 11. Meters in use shall be tested by the inspector or
 2 by one of his assistants or a deputy on the request of the consumer
 3 or of the gas light company, in the presence of the consumer if 4 desired, and with sealed apparatus. If he finds that the meter is 5 correct, the person requesting the inspection shall pay the fees for 6 such inspection and the expense of removing the meter for the pur-
 7 pose of being tested, and the re-inspection shall be stamped on the 8 meter. If he finds that the meter is incorrect, the gas light com-
 9 pany shall pay such expenses and shall furnish a new meter without 10 charge to the consumer.

Testing of meters in use.
1861, 168, § 9.
P. S. 61, § 12.

1 SECTION 12. Meters for measuring gas supplied to consumers
 2 shall register the quantity of gas passing through them in cubic feet
 3 so that the number of cubic feet of gas consumed can be easily ascer-
 4 tained by the consumer thereof. No meter shall be used which may 5 confuse or deceive the consumer in ascertaining the price he pays
 6 per thousand cubic feet or the number of cubic feet consumed. No
 7 charge for the use of a meter during any portion of twelve consecu-
 8 tive months shall be made if the consumer during said time uses gas
 9 to the value of seven dollars.

Meters to register plainly.

1 SECTION 13. Every gas light company which annually manu-
 2 factures more than fifteen million cubic feet of gas, made and sold
 3 for illuminating purposes, shall provide a suitable room, at least a
 4 quarter of a mile from the gas works, containing a disc photometer
 5 of a construction approved by the inspector, which shall be open to 6 the inspector and his assistants on every working day from eight
 7 o'clock in the morning until six o'clock in the afternoon.

P. S. 61, § 13.
1885, 240, § 1.

1 SECTION 14. The gas of every company which supplies more
 2 than fifty consumers, except gas made and used exclusively for 3 heating, cooking, chemical and mechanical purposes, shall be in-
 4 spected at least twice a year, and once additionally for every six
 5 million cubic feet of gas supplied by each company; but not oftener
 6 than once a week. All such inspections shall be made by the in-
 7 spector or one of his assistants, and one-fourth at least of all such 8 inspections shall be made by the inspector. The gas shall be tested 9 for illuminating power by means of a disc photometer and, during 10 such test, shall be burned from the burner best adapted to it, which 11 is at the same time suitable for domestic use, and at as near the 12 rate of five feet an hour as is practicable. If the gas of any com-
 13 pany is found on three consecutive inspections to give less light 14 than sixteen standard English candles, or to contain more than 15 twenty grains of sulphur or ten grains of ammonia per hundred 16 cubic feet of gas, or any sulphuretted hydrogen, a fine of one
 17 hundred dollars shall be paid by such company to each city or town
 18 supplied by it. If during the test the consumption of gas varies 19 from five feet an hour, or the candle from one hundred and twenty 20 grains an hour, a proportionate correction shall be made for the 21 candle power.

SECTION 17. A gas or electric light company shall not refuse to supply gas or electricity for any building or premises to a person applying therefor who is not in arrears to it for any gas or electricity previously supplied to him because a bill for gas or electricity remains unpaid by a previous occupant of such building or premises.

If, on reasonable inquiry, such person cannot be found, the sale may be made without notice. The proceeds of the sale, after deducting the expenses thereof and the storage and other proper charges, shall be paid or credited to the person in whose name the property was stored, or if he cannot be found, to the treasurer and receiver general, who shall pay it over to the owner thereof upon proof of his title thereto within one year after its receipt by the treasurer.  5 a time and place specified in the notice unless the amount due for 6 storage, the advances made thereon and the expenses of advertising

 8 may retain said storage charges, advances made and expenses of 9 advertising and sale.

 5 and receiver general and shall, at the same time, file with him an
 6 affidavit stating the name and residence of the person whose prop-
 7 erty has been sold, the articles sold and the prices obtained there-

Negotiable character not affected by	SECTION 22. An instrument which contains an order or promise to do any act in addition to the payment of money is not negotiable.	1

3 But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable
 4 is not affected by a provision which :
 5 1. Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instru-
 6 ment is not paid at maturity ; or 7 2. Authorizes a confession of judgment if the instrument is not 8 paid at maturity ; or
 9 3. Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or 10 protection of the obligor ; or
 11 4. Gives the holder an election to require something to be done 12 in lieu of payment of money.

 14 tion otherwise illegal.

 2 ment are not affected by the fact that :
 3 1. It is not dated ; or 4 2. Does not specify the value given, or that any value has been 5 given therefor ; or
 6 3. Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place
 7 where it is payable ; or 8 4. Bears a seal ; or
 9 5. Designates a particular kind of current money in which pay-

 3 order. It may be drawn payable to the order of :
 4 1. A payee who is not maker, drawer, or drawee ; or 5 2. The drawer or maker ; or 6 3. The drawee ; or 7 4. Two or more payees jointly ; or

5. When the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.

Terms sufficient, when. 1898, 533, § 10.

SECTION 27. The instrument need not follow the language of this chapter, but any terms are sufficient which clearly indicate an intention to conform to the requirements hereof.

Date of making, etc. 1898, 533, § 11. 5 Mass. 286. 7 Gray, 543.

SECTION 28. Where the instrument or an acceptance or any indorsement thereon is dated such date is deemed prima facie to be the true date of the making, drawing, acceptance, or indorsement, as the case may be.

Not invalid if ante-dated, etc. 1898, 533, § 12. 11 Met. 276. 13 Allen, 123. 156 Mass. 508.

SECTION 29. The instrument is not invalid for the reason only that it is ante-dated or post-dated, provided this is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The person to whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the title thereto as of the date of delivery.

Holder may insert date, when. 1898, 533, § 13. 10 Cush. 373.

SECTION 30. Where an instrument expressed to be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, or where the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period after sight is undated, any holder may insert therein the true date of issue or acceptance, and the instrument shall be payable accordingly. The insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instrument in the hands of a subsequent holder in due course; but as to him the date so inserted is to be regarded as the true date.

— may complete, when. 1898, 533, § 14. 2 Allen, 236. 10 Cush. 373. 125 Mass. 496. 150 Mass. 574.

SECTION 31. Where the instrument is wanting in any material particular the person in possession thereof has a prima facie authority to complete it by filling up the blanks therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the person making the signature, in order that the paper may be converted into a negotiable instrument, operates as a prima facie authority to fill it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any such instrument when completed may be enforced against any person who became a party thereto prior to its completion, it must be filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given, and within a reasonable time. But if any such instrument, after completion, is negotiated to a holder in due course, it is valid and effectual for all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had been filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given, and within a reasonable time.

Incomplete instrument not a valid contract, when. 1898, 533, § 15.

SECTION 32. Where an incomplete instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed and negotiated without authority, be a valid contract in the hands of any holder, as against any person whose signature was placed thereon before delivery.

Contract incomplete until delivery. 1898, 533, § 16.

SECTION 33. Every contract on a negotiable instrument is incomplete and revocable until delivery of the instrument for the purpose

3 of giving effect thereto. As between immediate parties, and as re-
 4 gards a remote party other than a holder in due course, the delivery,
 5 in order to be effectual, must be made either by or under the authority
 6 of the party making, drawing, accepting or indorsing, as the case
 7 may be; and in such case the delivery may be shown to have been
 8 conditional, or for a special purpose only, and not for the purpose
 9 of transferring the property in the instrument. But where the in-10 strument is in the hands of a holder in due course a valid delivery
 11 thereof by all parties prior to him so as to make them liable to him 12 is conclusively presumed. Where the instrument is no longer in 13 the possession of a party whose signature appears thereon a valid
 14 and intentional delivery by him is presumed until the contrary is 15 proved.

 3 apply :

 1874, 404.

4 1. Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also in

Negotiation.

1 SECTION 47. An instrument is negotiated when it is transferred 2 from one person to another in such manner as to constitute the 3 transferee the holder thereof. If payable to bearer it is negotiated
 4 by delivery; if payable to order it is negotiated by the indorsement
 5 of the holder completed by delivery.

1 SECTION 48. The indorsement must be written on the instru-
 2 ment itself or upon a paper attached thereto. The signature of 3 the indorser, without additional words, is a sufficient indorsement.

Indorsement.
 1898, 533, § 31.
 18 Pick. 63.
 173 Mass. 210.

1 SECTION 49. The indorsement must be an indorsement of the 2 entire instrument. An indorsement which purports to transfer to 3 the indorsee a part only of the amount payable, or which purports
 4 to transfer the instrument to two or more indorsees severally, does 5 not operate as a negotiation of the instrument. But where the in-6 strument has been paid in part it may be indorsed as to the residue.

— of entire instrument.
 1898, 533, § 32.

1 SECTION 50. An indorsement may be either special or in blank;
 2 and it may also be either restrictive, or qualified, or conditional.

— special or in blank.
 1898, 533, § 33.

1 SECTION 51. A special indorsement specifies the person to whom,
 2 or to whose order, the instrument is to be payable; and the indorse-
 3 ment of such indorsee is necessary to the further negotiation of the 4 instrument. An indorsement in blank does not specify any indorsee, 5 and an instrument so indorsed is payable to bearer and may be 6 negotiated by delivery.

 dorsement, etc.

1 SECTION 52. The holder may convert a blank indorsement into
 2 a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser
 3 in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorse-4 ment.

Holder may convert blank
 to special,

 1898, 533, § 35.
 11 Mass. 287.

1 SECTION 53. An indorsement is restrictive, which either:

- 2 1. Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or
- 3 2. Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or 132 Mass. 227.      148 Mass. 553.      151 Mass. 413.

4 3. Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the use of 5 some other person.

 restrictive,

6 But the mere absence of words implying power to negotiate does
 7 not make an indorsement restrictive.

6 Mass. 430.

3 Mass. 224.

1 SECTION 54. A restrictive indorsement confers upon the in-
 2 dorsee the right:

1898, 533, § 37.

— rights of indorsee thereunder.

	1. To receive payment of the instrument :	3
5 Mass. 542.	2. To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring ;	4
	11 Met. 276. 156 Mass. 11.
	3. To transfer his rights as such indorsee, where the form of the indorsement authorizes him to do so.	5
	But all subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsement.	7

Qualified indorsement. 1898, 533, § 38. 3 Mass. 224. 14 Pick. 268. 5 Met. 201. 2 Allen, 434.	SECTION 55. A qualified indorsement constitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrument. It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the words " without recourse ", or any words of similar import. Such an indorsement does not impair the negotiable character of the instrument.	1 2 3 4 5
Conditional indorsement. 1898, 533, § 39.	SECTION 56. Where an indorsement is conditional a party required to pay the instrument may disregard the condition and make payment to the indorsee or his transferee, whether the condition has been fulfilled or not. But any person to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated will hold the same, or the proceeds thereof, subject to the rights of the person indorsing conditionally.	1 2 3 4 5 6
Instrument indorsed specially may be further negotiated. 1898, 533, § 40. 4 Allen, 356.	SECTION 57. Where an instrument payable to bearer is indorsed specially it may nevertheless be further negotiated by delivery ; but the person indorsing specially is liable as indorser only to such holders as make title through his indorsement.	1 2 3 4
Indorsement by payees, etc., not partners. 1898, 533, § 41. 9 Mass. 333.	SECTION 58. Where an instrument is payable to the order of two or more payees or indorsees who are not partners, all must indorse, unless the one indorsing has authority to indorse for the others.	1 2 3

1 SECTION 64. An instrument negotiable in its origin continues
 2 to be negotiable until it has been restrictively indorsed or discharged
 3 by payment or otherwise.

Negotiability
 to continue,
 until.
 1898, 533, § 47.

1 SECTION 65. The holder may at any time strike out any indorse-
 2 ment which is not necessary to his title. The indorser whose in-3 dorsement is struck out and all indorsers subsequent to him are 4 thereby relieved from liability on the instrument.

1 SECTION 66. Where the holder of an instrument payable to his
 2 order transfers it for value without indorsing it the transfer vests in 3 the transferee such title as the transferor had therein, and the trans-
 4 feree acquires, in addition, the right to have the indorsement of the 5 transferor. But for the purpose of determining whether the trans-
 6 feree is a holder in due course the negotiation takes effect as of the

It shall not be paid to or for any person who is able to support himself, who is in receipt of income or who owns property sufficient for his support, nor to an amount in excess of such amount as is necessary, in addition to his income and property, for his personal relief or support, nor to or for any soldier, sailor, pensioner, dependent relative or nurse if the necessity therefor is caused by the voluntary idleness or continuous vicious or intemperate habits of the soldier, sailor or pensioner on whose account such aid is sought, nor to or for any person who has been dishonorably discharged from any national soldiers' or sailors' home or from the soldiers' home in this commonwealth, unless the commissioners of state aid, after a hearing, shall otherwise determine. State aid shall not be subject to the trustee process, and no assignment thereof shall be valid. No back state aid shall be paid, nor shall state aid be paid to or for any person convicted of crime unless the municipal authorities and the commissioners of state aid otherwise determine, nor shall state or military aid be paid if the pensioner, soldier or sailor deserted from the service of the United

 14 of any town disbursing the same, to said commissioners on blank

 16 missioners. The commissioners shall examine the certificates there-
 17 of and allow and indorse thereon such amounts as in their judgment
 18 have been paid and reported according to the provisions of this
 19 chapter, and transmit the certificate to the auditor. Said commis-
 20 sioners may decide upon the necessity of the amount paid in each 21 case, and may allow any portion thereof which they may deem 22 proper and lawful and which, in cases of payment to or for persons 23 of the third or fourth class entitled to receive military aid, they 24 shall also find to have been made according to their orders, but 25 they shall allow and indorse the amounts which they have specifi-
 26 cally authorized to be paid under and according to their decisions 27 authorized and provided for by section eight. The whole of the 28 amounts legally paid as aforesaid and so allowed for state aid, and

COMMITMENTS OF DIPSO MANIACS AND INEBRIATES.

Commitments of dipsomaniacs. 1885, 329, § 1. 1889, 414, §§ 6, 7. 1891, 158, § 1. 1899, 266, § 1. 1900, 350. 1901, 282.	SECTION 59. Any of the judges named in section thirty-three may commit to the Massachusetts hospital for dipsomania and inebriates any male, or to a state insane hospital any male or female, who is addicted or subject to dipsomania or inebriety either in public or private: but no such commitment shall be made until satisfactory evidence is presented to the judge by whom the proceedings for commitment are heard that like notice to that required by section thirty-four has been given and that such person is not of bad repute or of bad character apart from his habits of inebriety. The magistrate who receives the application for such commitment shall examine on oath the applicant and all other witnesses, shall reduce the application to writing and cause it to be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant.  5 inebriety, or will be sufficiently provided for by himself or his 6 guardian, relatives or friends, they may, upon such conditions as
 7 they may impose, issue to him a permit to be at liberty, revocable
 8 by them at any time previous to its expiration. The violation of 9 any of the terms or conditions of such permit by the holder thereof
 10 shall render it void, and the trustees may thereupon issue an order
 11 authorizing the arrest and return to the hospital of the holder

 3 to the superior court sitting for criminal business in the county from 4 which he is committed, in the manner provided by section twenty-

 6 in such hospital to abide the final order of said court until he rec-
 7 ognizes in the manner provided in section twenty-two of chapter 8 two hundred and nineteen. Upon such appeal the judge who or-9 dered the commitment may bind the witnesses by recognizance as 10 provided in chapter two hundred and seventeen, and shall make a
 11 copy of the order of commitment and other proceedings in the case
 12 and transmit the same with the recognizance, if any, to the clerk of

 3 court may enter an order in like manner as if he had been ordered
 4 to be committed by that court; and process may issue, if necessary,

Withdrawal of appeal. 1889, 414, § 14.

SECTION 64. The appellant may at any time before the copy of the proceedings has been transmitted to the superior court be brought personally before the judge from whose order the appeal was taken, and, at his request, may be permitted by the judge in his discretion to withdraw his appeal and abide by the order of said judge, who shall order that the appellant comply with the order appealed from in the same manner as if it were then imposed.

SECTION 65. The provisions of this chapter relative to the commitment of insane persons to an insane hospital shall, unless otherwise expressly provided, apply to and govern commitments under the provisions of the six preceding sections, except that it shall be specifically alleged that a person who is committed thereunder is a dipsomaniac or inebriate instead of alleging that he is insane.

COMMITMENTS TO MASSACHUSETTS HOSPITAL FOR EPILEPTICS.

Commitment of epileptics. 1895, 483, §§ 8, 9, 11. 1899, 211, § 1.

SECTION 66. A person of the age of fourteen years or over who is subject to epilepsy, if he is not a criminal, an idiot, inebriate or violently insane, may be received for care and treatment in the Massachusetts hospital for epileptics by the trustees thereof or may, if insane, be committed thereto. The state board of insanity may also transfer to said hospital any such epileptic who has been committed to an insane hospital, or if it has reason to believe that he is deprived of proper care and treatment, may cause any such epileptic confined in an almshouse or other place at the public charge or otherwise to be transferred or committed thereto.

Reception of patients. 1895, 483, § 10. 1899, 211, § 2. [1 Op. A. G. 515.]

SECTION 67. The trustees of said hospital may receive and detain therein, as a boarder and patient, any person of the age of fourteen years or over, subject to epilepsy, who desires to submit himself to treatment and makes written application therefor, but whose mental condition is not such as to render it legal to grant a certificate of insanity: and upon his reception at said hospital, the superintendent shall report the particulars of the case to the state board of insanity, which may investigate the same. No such patient shall be detained more than three months after having given written notice of his intention or desire to leave said hospital.

Admission of sane epileptics. 1898, 213, § 1. 1899, 211, § 3.

SECTION 68. A person of the age of fourteen years or over who desires to be admitted to said hospital under the provisions of the preceding section and is not of sufficient ability to pay the charges for his support therein, and who has no person or kindred bound by law to maintain him of sufficient ability to pay such charges, may apply to any judge authorized to commit insane persons for approval of his application for admission. No such person shall be admitted to said hospital except in accordance with the provisions of this and the four following sections.

1 SECTION 70. The petitioner shall give notice in writing to the 2 overseers of the poor of the city or town in which he resides of his 1898, 213, § 3.

1 SECTION 71. The hearing of such petition shall be at such time
 2 and place as the judge shall appoint. If upon such hearing the 3 judge finds that the petitioner is subject to epilepsy and is eligible
 4 for admission to said hospital, that his mental condition is not such 5 as to render it legal to grant a certificate of insanity, that neither
 6 he nor any person bound by law to maintain him is of sufficient
 7 ability to pay the charges for his support in such hospital and that 8 notice has been given as provided in the preceding section, he may 9 approve said application for admission. A certificate reciting said
 10 findings and approval, signed by the judge, with certified copies 1899, 211, § 4.

1 SECTION 72. The judge shall not approve the application for ad-
 2 mission unless the certificate of two physicians has been filed with 3 him. A physician shall not be qualified to make such certificate un-

 5 cal school or college, that he has been in the actual practice of his 6 profession in this commonwealth as a physician for at least three 7 years since such graduation and for the three years last preceding 8 the making of said oath and that he is registered in accordance with 9 the provisions of chapter seventy-six, nor unless his standing,
 10 character and professional knowledge of epilepsy are satisfactory
 11 to the judge. Such physician shall state in said certificate that in 12 his opinion the petitioner is an epileptic and a suitable person to be 13 received in said hospital and shall state the facts on which his opinion
 14 is founded substantially in accordance with the practice relating to 15 certificates of insanity.

Approval of application.
 1898, 213, § 5.

1 SECTION 73. In all cases arising under the provisions of the 2 five preceding sections the judge, the physicians and officers shall board has been appointed shall not vote to authorize the granting 2 of licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquor, all obligations imposed 3 upon said city by the provisions of the preceding section shall cease 4 from and after the first Monday in June next following such vote 5 and, from and after said date, the powers and duties granted to and 6

7 imposed upon said board in respect to sixth and seventh-class
 8 licenses and licenses of innholders and common victuallers shall vest

SECTION 12. The licensing board of a city or town which has 1 voted to authorize the granting of licenses for the sale of intoxicat- 2
 ing liquor may, during March and April, receive applications for 3 such licenses, publish, investigate and act thereon, and may, in 4
 April, grant such licenses, to take effect on the first day of May 5 following. 6

SECTION 13. In cities and towns which vote to authorize the 1 granting of licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors, the number 2 of places licensed for the sale of such liquors shall not exceed one for 3
 each one thousand of the population as ascertained by the last pre- 4 ceding national or state census, but one such place may be licensed 5 in any town having a population of less than one thousand. In 6
 Boston, one such place may be licensed for each five hundred of the 7 population, but in no event shall the total number of licensed places 8 therein exceed one thousand. No more than one such place shall 9 be licensed by any one vote of the licensing board. Such licenses 10 shall be numbered in regular order as granted, and any license 11 granted contrary to, or in excess of, the provisions of this section 12 shall be void; but in a town voting as aforesaid at its last annual 13 town meeting which has less than five thousand permanent residents 14
 according to the last preceding state or national census but has 15 an increased resident population during the summer months, the 16 selectmen may, on or before the fifteenth day of May in any year, 17 apply to the chief of the bureau of statistics of labor to have an 18 enumeration made of the temporary or summer residents of such 19 town. Said chief shall thereupon make such enumeration, between 20 the twenty-third and the twenty-eighth day of June next follow- 21
 ing, under such rules as he shall establish. A person who has 22 not been a resident of such town for at least three days preced- 23
 ing the enumeration shall not be regarded as a temporary or 24 summer resident thereof. Said chief may employ, for such enumer- 25 ation, such persons as may be necessary, who shall in all cases be 26 residents of the town if suitable and competent persons can be 27 found; otherwise, non-residents may be employed. The chief 28 shall report the total number of such temporary or summer resi- 29
 dents to the selectmen of the town on or before said twenty- 30

31 eighth day of June. The expenses incurred in making such special
 32 enumeration shall be paid by the commonwealth. The treasurer
 33 and receiver general shall thereupon issue his warrant, as provided 34 in section thirty-four of chapter twelve, requiring the assessors of 35 such town to assess a tax to the amount of the expense incurred
 36 in making this special enumeration, and such amount shall be col-
 37 lected and paid over to the treasurer and receiver general in the 38 same manner as other state taxes. The selectmen may, in April,
 39 receive applications for such licenses and investigate and publish 40 the same; and may grant one such license for each five hundred of 41 such temporary resident population, not including the permanent 42 inhabitants of such town, as ascertained by said special enumeration,
 43 to take effect on the first day of July and to expire on the first day
 44 of October next following. A selectman, member of a licensing
 45 board or census enumerator who violates any provision of this 46 section shall be punished by a fine of five hundred dollars.

1 SECTION 14. Notice of all applications for licenses shall, at the 2 expense of the applicant, to be paid in advance, be published in the 3 following manner: in the city of Boston, by the licensing board in 4 two or more daily newspapers published therein; and in the Charles-
 5 town, East Boston, South Boston, Dorchester, Roxbury, West Rox-
 6 bury and Brighton districts of said city, respectively, in at least one 7 weekly newspaper published in the district in which the premises for 8 which the license is asked are situated, if any is there published;
 9 in other cities having licensing boards, by said boards, and in 10 other cities and towns, by the mayor and aldermen and the 11 selectmen, respectively, in such newspapers, printed therein and 12 published at least once a week, as they may designate; or if no
 13 such newspaper is printed therein, then by posting such notice in 14 a conspicuous place on the premises described in the application for 15 the license, and in two or more places in which public notices are 16 usually posted in the neighborhood. Such notice shall set forth the 17 name of the applicant in full, the class of the license applied for,
 18 a particular description of the premises on which the license is 19 to be exercised, designating the building or part of a building to 20 be used, and, if practicable, the street and number, and shall be 21 published at least ten days before the licensing board acts thereon.
 22 If a license is granted without such previous publication, any citizen
 23 of the city or town within which such license is issued may make 24 complaint to the police, district or municipal court, or the trial
 25 justice having jurisdiction therein; and if, after due hearing, it 26 appears that such notice was not given, the court or justice shall 27 revoke the license and give notice thereof to the board which 28 issued it.

 20 and compliance with such decree. Whoever is aggrieved by a 21 breach of the condition of such bond may sue thereon at his own
 22 expense and in his own behalf, but in the name of the obligee; and 23 if judgment shall be entered for the defendant for costs, execution 24 therefor shall issue against the person for whose benefit the suit is 25 brought as if he were the plaintiff of record, but not against the

 28 any time, require the licensee to file an additional bond of like nature
 29 and with like effect, and to give full information as to all judgments

 14 deemed to be interest.

If it appears that such structure would be specially unsafe in case of fire, it shall be deemed dangerous within the meaning hereof, and the inspector may affix in a conspicuous place upon its exterior walls a notice of its dangerous condition, which shall not be removed or defaced without authority from him.

INSPECTION BY INSPECTORS OF FACTORIES AND PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Definition.

SECTION 14. The words "inspector of factories and public buildings", as used in this chapter, shall mean a member of the inspection department of the district police.

Inspectors to examine buildings, etc. 1888, 426, § 2. 1894, 481, § 27.

SECTION 15. The inspectors of factories and public buildings shall from time to time examine all buildings within their respective districts which are subject to the provisions of this chapter. If, in the judgment of any such inspector, such building conforms to the requirements of this chapter, he shall issue to the owner, lessee or occupant thereof, or of any portion thereof used in the manner described in section twenty-five, a certificate to that effect, specifying the number of persons for whom the egresses and means of escape from fire are sufficient. Such certificate shall not continue in force for more than five years after its date, but so long as it continues in force it shall be conclusive evidence of a compliance by the person to whom it is issued with the provisions of this chapter. It shall be void if a greater number of persons than is therein specified are accommodated or employed or assemble, lodge or reside within such building or portion thereof, or if such building is used for any purposes materially different from those for which it was used at the time of the granting thereof, or if its interior arrangement is materially altered, or if any egresses or means of escape from fire in such building at the time of granting such certificate are rendered unavailable or materially changed. Such certificate may be revoked by such inspector at any time upon written notice to the holder thereof or to the occupant of the premises for which it was granted, and shall be so revoked if, in the opinion of such inspector, the conditions have so changed that the existing egresses and means of escape are not proper and sufficient. A copy of said certificate shall

26 be kept posted in a conspicuous place upon each story of such 27 building by the occupant of the premises covered thereby.

1 SECTION 16. Upon application to an inspector for a certificate
 2 under the provisions of this chapter, he shall issue to the applicant
 3 an acknowledgment of such application, which for ninety days, pend-
 4 ing the granting or refusal of such certificate, shall have the same
 5 effect as such certificate, and such acknowledgment may be renewed
 6 by him with the same effect for a further period, not exceeding
 7 ninety days, and may be further renewed by the chief of the district
 8 police, until such time as such certificate shall be granted or re-9 fused.

 ment of application for certificate.

 1894, 481, § 23.

1 SECTION 17. If any change in the use or otherwise shall be
 2 made upon premises for which such certificate has been issued which
 3 would render the certificate void according to the provisions of sec-
 4 tion fifteen, the person who makes such change shall forthwith give 5 written notice thereof to an inspector for the district or to the chief 6 of the district police.

Notice of changes.

1 SECTION 18. If an inspector finds that any building or portion
 2 thereof which is subject to the provisions of this chapter fails to 3 conform thereto, or if any change is made therein which would 4 render a certificate void according to the provisions of section fifteen,
 5 he shall give notice in writing to the owner, lessee, occupant or 6 agent in charge thereof, specifying such additional egresses or 7 means of escape from fire as in his opinion may be necessary to con-
 8 form to the provisions of this chapter and to obtain a certificate as 9 aforesaid.

 form.

1 SECTION 19. Whoever is aggrieved by the order, requirement or 2 direction of an inspector given under the provisions of this chapter
 3 may, within ten days after the service thereof, apply to the superior
 4 court for the county in which the building to which such order, re-
 5 quirement or direction relates is situated for an injunction to restrain 6 its enforcement; and after such notice as said court shall order to 7 all parties interested, a hearing may be had before said court at such 8 early and convenient time and place as shall be fixed by said order;
 9 or the court may appoint three disinterested persons, skilled in 10 the subject matter of the controversy, to examine the matter and hear 11 the parties; and the decision of said court, or the decision, in writ-
 12 ing and under oath, of the majority of said experts, filed in the office
 13 of the clerk of courts in said county within ten days after such 14 hearing, may alter, annul or affirm such order, requirement or 15 direction. Such decision or a certified copy thereof shall have the 16 same authority, force and effect as the original order, requirement
 17 or direction of the inspector. If such decision annuls or alters 18 such order, requirement or direction, the court shall also enjoin the 19 said inspector from enforcing it, and in every such case the certifi-
 20 cate required by section fifteen shall thereupon be issued by said 21 court or by said experts.
